Help your heart beat strong. The average heart beats 70 times per minute. Each of the 1,000 or so times in a day that your heart is able to pump blood around your body, it is also helping to deliver vital nutrients and oxygen and repair damage.

Rhythmatic, Univera's cardio complex contains UniBEX™, a proprietary and patented extract derived from bamboo leaf that supports cardiovascular health and healthy blood circulation. UniBEX was discovered by Univera's sister company Unigen, which has invested more than three years and hundreds of thousands of dollars researching this new landmark ingredient.

Rhythmatic combines essential heart-healthy resveratrol, a key active ingredient that is found in red wine, EPA and DHA from omega-3 essential fatty acids derived from fish oil, along with coenzyme Q10. Rhythmatic is truly an unique and all-natural solution to help you keep your heart beating strong.
